

© F S

Bistro occasional

Cafés and casual spaces have earned their spot in the front of buildings and are now the first place people experience your organization. Bistro offers the warmth and beauty of wood through a collection of seating and occasional and standing height tables. Walnut, oak, and beech choices present rich tones and modern naturals for a palette of design expressions.

