

carolina
an OFS company

Stray

Stray

Designed to move with and empower caregivers, the Stray caregiver support station offers flexibility and efficiency in delivering daily care. With this dynamic support tool, caregivers can easily access resources, so they can focus on building stronger relationships with their patients. Whether it's facilitating conversations, exploring new treatments, or discovering new ways to provide comfort, Stray is an essential support station for caregivers.

Full product information

View more on Specify & Price for complete specification information and statement of line.

Thought starters

