

San Diego Dreaming

by Bryan Ashley San Diego, CA

As California's second largest city, not only is San Diego renowned for its idyllic climate, pristine beaches and world-class attractions, you can also find luxurious resorts and spas, including those featured here.

Willows Hotel & Spa

San Diego

5000 Willows Rd • Alpine, CA • 91901

Willows Hotel & Spa - San Diego's premier resort

Located among the foothills of the Cuyamaca Mountains in the small town of Alpine, Willows Hotel & Spa at Viejas is a 159-room all-suite property that offers an adults-only, luxury boutique experience. Just the right distance from downtown, it's easy to get to and delivers a full ensemble of saltwater pools, a serene spa, award-winning restaurants, and all the action you'd expect from a casino resort. Designed to embody modern elegance and luxury, each of the 600+ square-foot suites are outfitted in creamy stone, rich wood veneers, and neutral tones with pops of gold throughout the contemporary decor.

San Diego Mission Bay Resort

Guests will feel at home in the renovated rooms that blend modern sophistication with a laid-back beach vibe. The guestrooms and living areas were inspired by the Southern California environment. Natural woven materials, rich walnut wood, ebony quartz, and powder-coated matte black metal were used to hand-craft each piece of furniture. Fabrics in sandy neutrals, sea blue, and sunny yellow provide a welcoming and relaxing atmosphere.

Handlery Hotel San Diego

The founder of Handlery Hotels, Harry Handlery, established the brand with this vision: "To have every guest not question why they stayed here, but to question they didn't stay here before..." With 217 guestrooms and suites, there will be no question about the delightful experience you will have at the Handlery San Diego.

The boutique accommodations, in this Southern California oasis, feature channel tufted headboards, rich wood casegoods, and a bright and breezy ambiance and laid-back style.
